About the Author

Paul Brough has had many types of pets but cats are probably his favorites.

He worked in a pet store when he left school but has been selling insurance for almost ten years.

He has always been interested in writing and thought that this was the ideal subject for his first book. He did not rely on just his own experience but researched among his friends and work colleagues.

Paul hopes that this collection of advice and tips will help you and your family to have a long and happy relationship when your perfect cat adopts you.

“Understanding, Caring For & Training Your Cat”

By Paul Brough

There are dozens of breeds to choose from and the first section will describe them for you as well as a discussion on the different colors of cats. What you should know BEFORE you buy a cat - A discussion on what your home situation is as well as the financial responsibility of having a cat. The following section of this Sneak Peek describes the remaining topics:

How to select a cat breeder - A cat's lifespan is normally 20 years or more, depending on the care it is given. Choosing a responsible breeder will make your cat not only healthier, but live longer

Learn how to select the cat that is just right for you - Should it be a kitten or an adult, male or female, purebred or mixed breed. These are important consideration before you buy your cat.

Discover how cats behave - That's right. You will discover common cat behaviors and how and why they act as they do.

How to create a healthy environment for your cat -

Common cat diseases and health problems - and all about vaccinations for your cat. Which ones are critical.

Selecting the right cat litter - There is a wide variety of designs, styles and features for cat litter boxes. Learn how to select the correct one for your cat. There are a variety of cat litters to choose from. Learn tips and advice about making the correct selection for your cat.

Grooming your cat - Although your feline friends groom on their own, you should still do your part in keeping your cat clean and well-groomed. Learn what the steps are inside the book.

Selecting cat toys - Cats have the tendency to both play hard and play soft. Toys are to cats the same as toys are to dogs. Learn which are better for your purposes.

Training your cat to walk on a leash - In this chapter is a series of steps to towards having your cat trot along beside you on his own leash.

All about diet - What is the best food for your cat?

Training tips for cats

END NOTE

Before buying and bringing home a cat, you should consider various factors involving the cat, your house, family members and other possible factors. You are adding a new member to your family and you really need to be prepared. If you do not consider such factors, you may have to return your pet soon after you purchase and bring it home. This can cause lot of misery and sorrow all around.

Consider your personal situation before purchasing a cat. You should have sufficient time to care for the cat. If you have a full-time job, you should be able to take sudden leave to attend to any emergencies. Cats require company. It is not sufficient to give shelter to a cat in your house. You have to give it time just as you care for a child.

Use the tips and information we offer in "Understanding, Caring For And Training Your Cat": you can be sure it will be a wonderful experience.
