ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Can you imagine traveling to Mexico, Las Vegas or other resort destinations and doing it on your yard sale profits? That's exactly what Steve Yakim and his wife were able to do after their yard sale.

Steve Yakim has packed several careers in different professions into his life and he hasn't finished yet. He has a Bachelor Degree in Micro Computer Network Management and is a certificated Microsoft Certified Systems Engineer. He says that is almost as much fun as when he was a professional magician, touring around the U.S.A.!

He's also an ASE certified master mechanic, possibly the only one in the whole World that is also a licensed cosmetologist! Yes, he's licensed in the State of Indiana. Steve, with his wife, owned and operated a beauty shop, mini health spa, tanning salon and a gourmet coffee shop!

He's been on the Internet since 1996 and has several internet businesses.

“Yardsale Secrets Revealed”

By Steve Yakim

So, you're going to have a yard sale!

That is exactly what my wife and I decided to do. I like to call items that can be sold in a yard sale, “stuff”. You may call it clutter. My wife and I had accumulated so much stuff that we could hardly get into the basement or put the cars into the garage.

I did not know anything about yard sales and asked other people for advice. The people I talked to had very little to say and some were very negative, saying it was too much work for the little money they received.

Determined to get rid of all this stuff, I searched the Internet. There was very little to be found on the Internet as how-to have a yard sale. I finally ran into my friend Sue, who owns a re-sale shop and goes to as many yard sales as she can every week to help stock her shop.

With the information I received from Sue, combined with the knowledge from the Internet, I came up with a plan. It took almost 2 months to prepare for this yard sale. A successful yard sale takes substantial time and effort. But it was worth it!

Shortly after the yard sale, my wife and I went on a 2-week vacation to Mexico, Phoenix, the Grand Canyon, Las Vegas and Reno. We even went on a hot air balloon ride in the desert.

Guess what! It was completely paid for by the yard sale. It was absolutely the best vacation we ever had. Because there was so little information about yard sales on the Internet and my yard sale plan worked to perfection, I decided to write this manual to share my success with you.

This manual is not about making pocket change. Like I said previously, a successful yard sale takes substantial time and effort. I would never go through all the trouble of planning a yard sale if I was only going to make a total of $50.00 or $100.00.

There are practical principles in this manual that will make the effort worth it all! If you follow all the steps in this manual, you will be able to bring in a lot of extra money for your family this year, plus you will get rid of all your unwanted stuff.

The most important thing that you have to do before you start organizing your yard sale is to make sure you are legal. You need to do some research on your city, township and even your homeowner's association if you have one, concerning their laws and regulations they may have on yard sales.

Each of these organizations have governing authorities that make rules and pass laws that pertain to yard sales. Find out what the rules are and please follow them. Not knowing the rules can cause a disastrous halt to your yard sale after you have gone through all the time and effort it takes to set up and organize your sale.

Unfortunately, I heard of a lady that made the mistake of having too many sales in one year. She was informed to shut down her yard sale immediately because of a township ordinance. The regulations on yard sales in her township allowed only two separate weeks of yard sales.

I guess she was able to plead with the authorities by saying she was ignorant of the rules. She got extremely lucky and they permitted her to finish out her yard sale. She didn't even get a fine, but she was warned not to do it again.

Just to let you know, some towns even require you to have a license before you are permitted to have a yard sale. Some people have many yard sales all through the summer.

END NOTE

Every Saturday morning in cities and villages everywhere people make the rounds of yard sales. They are looking for a bargain. . . and they are ready to buy.

Why shouldn't they buy from you? They can and they will. Now, if they are willing to spend it with you, wouldn't it be better to have them spend more rather than less?

Take a look at just a few things that Steve reveals in "Yardsales Secrets Revealed:

- How to get started on the right foot
- Digging for gold. . .build your inventory
- How to prepare your "stuff"
- How to price your items for the maximum return
- Timing the sale
- How and when to advertise
- Plus more secret tips to succeed

If you want to see your yard sale profits skyrocket then what are you waiting for? Make your next yard sale the best you've ever had and triple your profits. Maybe you will take that luxury vacation just like Steve and his wife.
